

CATEGORY Neighbour of the Year Award 2024

The entry requirements for the Neighbour of the Year Award in the offshore energy industry aim to recognise companies that have exemplified exceptional corporate social responsibility and community engagement.

Eligible companies should demonstrate a strong commitment to ethical practices, sustainability, and social impact within the offshore energy sector. Nominees should provide evidence of their initiatives and programs that prioritise environmental stewardship, community development, employee welfare, and stakeholder engagement. Nominees will need to showcase the measurable outcomes and positive impact of their initiatives through testimonials, community partnerships, sustainability reports, and relevant certifications.
