

CATEGORY Outstanding Contribution to Energy Security Award 2024

This award recognises a company that has made a significant impact in ensuring the UK’s security of energy supply, through the whole oil and gas lifecycle (exploration, production and decommissioning) or the provision of renewable energy sources.

To be eligible for consideration, nominees should demonstrate exceptional leadership, innovation, and measurable outcomes in addressing challenges related to energy supply, diversification, efficiency, and sustainability.

The award committee seeks candidates who have implemented transformative strategies, technologies, or policies that enhance energy resilience, promote renewable energy sources, foster energy independence or strengthen energy infrastructure.
